Farmingville, NY - Supervisor Ed Romaine has scheduled four "Civic Roundtables" to be held at Town recreation facilities in the month of March. The events will bring together members of local civic and community organizations and the Supervisor, who will present the highlights of his March 4 "State of the Town Address." The agenda will also include an open discussion about issues affecting the Town. Members from more than 75 civic and community organizations will be invited to attend. Last April, the Supervisor held the first town wide civic roundtable in over 40 years at Town Hall. More than 50 representatives from dozens of community organizations participated in the event.

"Last year's civic roundtable was such a big success, I decided to take it on the road," said Supervisor Romaine. "It's important for our civic and community leaders to be aware of our accomplishments and how we plan to meet the challenges in the year ahead. I also look forward to getting feedback and sharing ideas about how we can all work together to improve the quality of life in Brookhaven Town."
